National Parks Week and National Junior Ranger Day.

April 17-25

Canaveral National Seashore would like to invite you to “Celebrate Your National Park” during the annual National Parks Week April 20-26. Come and enjoy the resources of the seashore for recreation and fitness, we have a full array of programs geared to all ages with something for everyone. As part of National Parks Week the seashore is “fee free” from April 17 to April 25.

On April 24, starting at 10:00 am, we will have a day devoted to Junior Ranger programs, geared toward ages 6-12, but all ages welcome. There will be programs scheduled throughout the day so that 3 may be attended and the Junior Ranger patch and certificate may be earned. We invite you to come early and stay for the certificate ceremony at 2:00 pm. We will also have a hotdog cookout or you are encouraged to bring your own picnic lunch to enjoy. For further information please contact the Visitor Information Center at (386) 428-3384 ext. 10.
